

VOL. XXXV., NO. 6286.

HONOLULU, HAWAII TERRITORY, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1902.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

REPUBLICANS AGAINST WILCOX LEPER BILL

Orators Visit Kalihi Detention Camp and Tell Natives How It Will Affect Patients.

Senator Kanuha Makes an Eloquent Address
In Favor of Prince Kuhio—Paul Isenberg
Does Not Deny He Can Milk Cows.

In the face of Home Rule opposition orators of the Republican party pursued their campaign last night in the Kalihi Detention camp. It was a rousing meeting, hundreds of Hawaiians crowding the hall and porches, and the applause was full and hearty. The majority of the speakers thrust at the Wilcox fallacies and if the eager faces of the auditors indicated their feelings, the meeting was a most successful one. It was held under the auspices of the Young Men's Republican Club, with S. M. Kakanui in the chair.

One of the most eloquent addresses was that of Senator Kanuha who held his audience as if spell-bound when he replied to a Home Ruler in the hall who referred to him as a snake. With voice trembling with emotion, and with forcible speech, the Senator poured out his proof that he was far from being a snake, and that he was instead an angel of mercy to the Hawaiians. So forcible was the Senator that the natives listened in rapt attention, and the noise which had been started when he arose soon subsided. He asked them whether it was as a snake that he went to Diamond Head, then to prison to sleep on a hard cot, and to eat unrelished food and drink only water. Was he a snake then when he did all for the Hawaiian race. He challenged any man to sling the epithet again at his face when these facts were before them. He told them to follow Prince Kuhio, to vote for him that he might benefit them by his presence at Washington.

Paul Isenberg was introduced as the "Kamehameha II" of the party and the "Milk of Waialae" as Wilcox had referred to him. He made a big hit and when in stentorian tones he called on all to follow the banner of Republicanism borne by Prince Kuhio and send him to Washington and help him to obtain benefits for the race, the cheering became intense. Isenberg said he was a good milker, but he could do other things as well, and among these was to work hard in the Legislature. He too, was a Hawaiian, and he looked forward to work for the interest of his people. Times were hard and times that were good would come with the election of good honest men to the Legislature, and those men were in the Republican party.

William Aylett made a forcible speech. His heart was still heavy from the failure of the last Legislature to accomplish anything for the territory, he said, and in the next election he trusted the Hawaiians would vote for the men who would help them.

All the speakers referred in scathing terms to Wilcox's leper bill and pointed out to the people what would result if the care of the lepers was taken away from the island government. Lorrin Andrews made a ringing speech against the leper bill and roused the Hawaiians to a pitch of enthusiasm. Paul Isenberg at the conclusion of his speech had to sing. The natives wouldn't let him sit down until his voice had been heard and to an accompaniment of guitars and mandolins he sang "Ua Like no a Like," after making the Hawaiians promise that they would vote for him if he did sing.

DEMOCRATS NAME WILCOX AND SUPPORT HIS TICKET

Four Changes Only Are Made in the Entire List of Home Rule Candidates for the Legislature.

Democrats, to the number of 57 last evening, at Waverley Hall, turned over their organization to the Home Rulers, Chairman McCarthy rode over the minority without scruple, and Testa, in the role of boss, tried hard to complete the surrender by insisting upon the acceptance of the entire Home Rule ticket, with the change only of David Kawanakoa instead of Notley for the Senate. The ticket nominated was as follows:

For Delegate: Robert W. Wilcox.
For the Senate: David Kawanakoa, Edgar Cayless and J. P. Makainai.

For Representatives, Fourth District: C. J. McCarthy, J. D. Holt Jr., H. A. Juen, G. K. Wilder, Joseph Aea and Keona.

For Representatives, Fifth District: Frank Harvey, William Mossman, D. M. Kuphea, S. K. Ohi, N. K. Kou and Damiano.

When the meeting was called to order the question, "What are we here for," came up, and on motion of Terrell it was decided to place a full Democratic ticket in the field. Creighton thought there should be no nomination for delegates, but that each man should vote for a candidate, so as to get at the uninfluenced opinion of the majority. This was not to the taste of the bosses, for a motion providing for the nominations by a committee of ten was passed and Chairman McCarthy read from a list prepared before the meeting the following: John Effinger, H. A. Juen, W. H. Johnson, Charles Creighton, F. Terrell, J. O. Carter Jr., Julius Asche, H. J. Mossman, C. L. Rhodes and G. K. Wilder. Before this an attempt was made to name Col. Cornwell for the delegate, but it failed. The committee reported back the list as nominated, with the exception of J. O. Carter for senator instead of Makainai, and a full list of Democrats for the fourth district, the fifth district being as passed. The committee stood 6 to 4 for Wilcox and 9 to 1 for the remainder of the Home Rulers.

Immediately the fight against Wilcox was begun. C. L. Rhodes moved to insert the name of Cornwell for Wilcox but he was beaten, and then on a ballot Wilcox received 46, Cornwell 10, and Prince Cupid 1. Cornwell moved and the nomination of Wilcox was made unanimous.

John Colburn tried to speak but McCarthy said he had not signed the roll, Colburn asking if this was a new list

FATHER LEONORE FOUESNEL PASSES AWAY AT THE CATHOLIC MISSION

THE LATE FATHER LEONORE.

L YING upon a cot in the humble room in which he has resided at the Catholic Mission for nearly two decades and surrounded by nearly all of the Catholic clergy of the Territory, Father Leonore Fouesnel, the patriarch of the priests in the Hawaiian Islands, passed away peacefully yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. For nearly twenty-four hours the aged and revered divine lay almost unconscious upon his cot before death overtook him, but it was a death without suffering, and in his ears to the very last sounded the prayers which for more than half a century he had said during his active ministry.

It was an affecting scene when Father Leonore passed from the midst of his fellow workers. It was known early in the day that he had not long to live for he had been stricken on Sunday with cerebral hemorrhage and the physicians noticed even then that the hand of death was outstretched to lead him to his eternal rest. Shortly after three yesterday Father Leonore lapsed into unconsciousness. In the cathedral Bishop Gulstan, the local clergy and the visiting priests from the other islands who are in Honolulu in attendance at the Annual Retreat, were praying while Father Leonore's life was slowly ebbing away. At his side knelt the faithful Brother Severinus, who has been a devoted attendant for years to the aged priest. Bishop Gulstan left the cathedral and came to see his old friend. Seeing that he was nearing death he knelt at his side and prayed for the repose of his soul. Other priests, finishing their devotions, came silently into the bare little room and dropped upon their knees. A candle was lighted and holy water was sprinkled about the dying priest's form. A last tremor and the Bishop looked up toward heaven. Heads were bowed low for all knew that Father Leonore was no longer in the land of the living.

On Sunday morning supported by four priests and attendants the Father entered the Cathedral for the last time and offered up his devotion to his Master. Almost fainting he was borne from the church and thence to his room and soon after the fatal hemorrhage came. The funeral will take place this morning at ten o'clock the services to be conducted in the Cathedral, Bishop Robert Gulstan officiating. At 9:30 minutes will be celebrated by the entire body of clergy, numbering some twenty priests, singing the office of the dead. The interment will be in the Catholic cemetery. The Bishop has issued a general invitation to the friends of the Mission and of Father Leonore, owing to the shortness of time necessary to issue invitations thereto.

Father Leonore Fouesnel was born August 13, 1823 in Allaire, Bresny, France. He was ordained priest in Paris in 1848 and arrived in the Hawaiian Islands with the Bishop of Alba in 1854, proceeding to Walluku, Maui, which was his first station. He remained there from 1854 to 1883 when he came to Honolulu to take up his residence and service. He was appointed Provincial in 1891 continuing as such until some three years ago when he retired from active participation in the work of the Mission. Father Matthias succeeded to his office, since which time he has been the Honorary Provincial. In 1884 he was sent to the United States where he secured the Sisters who have since been located at the Leper Settlement and at the Receiving Station in Kalihi. For this service he was decorated with the Order of the Star of Oceania by Princess Liliuokalani, acting as Regent in the absence of King Kalakaua.

Father Leonore was of an artistic turn of mind and it was due to him that the interior of the Cathedral was so beautifully decorated and gilded.

FRAMING LOCAL GOVERNMENT BILL

Republican Commission Discusses the Plans for a Proper Measure.

The commission named by Chairman Holstein of the Republican Territorial Convention to draft a bill to provide for city and county government, met yesterday and had a long preliminary talk over plans for future movements. The committee considered its duties in the largest sense and devoted the afternoon to discussion of the scope which is to be given to the measure to be framed.

A number of copies of the bill as formed two years ago were on hand and these furnished the basis for the discussion. The commission decided that the work should be pressed to an early conclusion, as there are a number of plans from which to work now before it. After discussing the plans informally for some time an adjournment was taken to Wednesday, at which time the commission will organize and rush through its work.

The members of the commission are: W. O. Smith, A. G. M. Robertson, A. L. C. Atkinson, E. D. Tenney and George W. Smith.

Maulans Not for Wilcox.
News from Maui shows that the feeling there is running strong in favor of Prince Kuhio. A letter received Sunday from Kihel says:

"The Republican party is very strong here on Maui for the coming election. The people here are not interested in Wilcox as in former times, and the hope is expressed that he will be badly beaten and that Prince Cupid will be elected by a large majority."

Verdict of Accidental Death.
The coroner's jury last night brought in a verdict to the effect that the sailor who lost his life in the harbor met his death through "accidental drowning."

Woods Looking for a Fight.
F. J. Bryant, the Irish comedian, goes to Hilo today on the steamer Claudine as advance agent for "Billy" Woods, who expects to fight all comers in the Rainy City.

AUSTIN EVADES HEARING

He Takes Refuge
In Technical Pleas.

MEANWHILE HE DEMANDS SALARY

Man Who Said He Has a Defence
Denies Governor's Right to Require It.

Following a refusal of Auditor Austin to participate in the hearing of the charges preferred by Governor Dole, with a reiteration of the charge that the executive is acting beyond his powers in the matter of suspension, the matter will now probably be submitted to the courts. The question of salary which Austin claims must still be paid is the point upon which the courts will probably be asked to act. In executive conference yesterday following the expulsion of the newspaper men at the request of Attorney Ashford, the question of salary was brought up, Austin insisting that the suspension of himself by the governor was illegal, and that he therefore could not be deprived of his salary. The governor promised an answer upon the point which was sent during the afternoon. This was to the effect that the salary will not be paid during the time that Mr. Austin is under suspension, but if through the action of the Senate it should develop that the auditor had been illegally suspended, the entire salary will be paid to him. If upon the first of October, which is tomorrow, the acting auditor refuses to issue a salary warrant to Mr. Austin for the entire month of September, legal action may then probably be instituted, though Austin's attorneys refuse to give out any information of the next move on their part.

In the meantime Austin is denied admittance to the office, a uniformed officer standing guard day and night, though no further attempt has been made to effect an entrance on the part of the suspended auditor.

It was but a few minutes after the appointed time, ten o'clock yesterday morning, when Herbert C. Austin, accompanied by his attorneys, C. W. Ashford and A. G. M. Robertson, appeared before the governor in the Executive Chamber. Deputy Attorney General J. W. Cathcart and Assistant Attorney General E. A. Douthett were present on behalf of the government, Land Commissioner E. S. Boyd being the only one in attendance besides the newspaper representatives and the stenographer.

"Are you ready to proceed?" asked Mr. Robertson, after all had been sitting quietly about the table for a few moments.

"Do you wish the government to put on its witnesses on behalf of the charges?" asked Governor Dole in reply. "I think it proper to first read the answer."

The answer was read as follows the document then being handed over to Deputy Attorney General Cathcart:

Auditing Department, Territory of Hawaii, Honolulu, September 29, 1902. Hon. Sanford B. Dole, Governor of the Territory of Hawaii, Honolulu, Hawaii.

Sir:—Your two communications, of the 25th and the 26th instant, respectively, have been received by me and have my attention.

In the first of those, you allege certain charges against me, and conclude with the announcement that, because of those charges, you suspend me from my office as Auditor of this Territory, pending such reply as I shall see fit to make to said charges, or such further investigation as may be had therein.

In the second, and later, of said communications, you cite me to appear before you, at a place and hour therein named, to show cause why the suspension

(Continued on Page 2.)